Chapter 1 by Zain Rasool

Teenagers ; Huh,always playing "who's the best?".Sometimes this game goes a little out of control.Then it becomes "who's the bravest?".In this game they deny the laws of nature and say that there's nothing such as ghosts.just because they have never seen them it doesn't means that they do not exist.Just like us they have their own world in our world.

Just like like this some teenagers played this game.They have heard of a mental asylum that was closed nearly a century ago.There was this room 141 that was extremely haunted.The teenagers ; they threw a bet of just 100$ to see that who is the bravest.So,they entered the asylum at nearly 2:AM. The walls of the asylum were covered with blood ; really red blood.They didn't get frightened at all.One of them who's name was Jacob he saw something weired.There was this narrow passage which was completely dark,he threw an empty there.When the can went in someone in the darkness thew it back.He got exhausted he told about this to his friend Ethan ; the bravest of all of them.Ethan tried the same thing again,he threw the can again and then someone threw it out again.He entered the narrow passage ; alone.After sometime Jacob heard a scream from that passage ; It was Ethan's voice.He was shivering with fearHe called all of his friends they came there.Once again, a they heard the scream.They became nervous

was this T.V making noise.One of them Edward just pulled the T.Vs wire,but it still didn't turn off.When he came near the T.V he realized that someone was saying "Welcome" and the voice was so creepy just like a dead soul.He told the others but they just ignored it by saying that "are you scared?".Then he said noo,i'm not.Edward was not feeling alright he knew that there was something strange.

Suddenly,the bathroom's shower turned on.Bob went there to give a check on it and just when he slided the door he saw that there was nothing so he took a few steps in the bathroom and then he neck went off his body.Everyone screamed they were so frightened they ran for the exit but when they reached there,there was no door.
